September 28-29, 2017

Rozzano, Milan - Italy

Course Director: Prof. Antonino Spinelli - Humanitas University, Milan - Italy

Our workshop is aimed at colorectal surgeons experienced in laparoscopic and/or robotic rectal surgery, and ideally also experienced with transanal surgery, especially TEM and TAMIS.

This 2-day course will focus on the rationale for taTME and appropriate patient selection. It will cover all practical aspects required to set up a safe and effective service.

In-depth didactic lectures, explanatory videos and hands-on on training in human cadavers will be provided by expert national and international faculty.

We aim to run the course for 8 delegates, and would strongly encourage surgeons to sign up in teams for the course.

We will also run a series of lectures specifically for the theatre staff and they will also be able to join in for the practical sessions.

Understand rationale for taTME & appropriate patient selection understand key steps, anatomic landmarks for taTME and potential pitfalls enable set-up of a safe and effective taTME program.
