COURSE TOPICS

- PF Ultrasound Techniques
- Normal US Pelvic Floor Anatomy
- Integrated Approach to Pelvic Floor Disorders
- Live US demonstrations
- 3D-US Hands-on session

PRESENTATION

Imaging is gaining a key role in the understanding of pelvic floor disorders. Three-dimensional endoanal, endorectal and endovaginal ultrasonography, and dynamic transperineal US (DTPUS) are nowadays increasingly used in clinical practice for patients suffering from pelvic floor dysfunctions (fecal and urinary incontinence, pelvic organ pro-lapse, obstructed defecation) and for patients with anal and rectal pathologies, either benign (anorectal sepsis) or malignant (anorectal tumors). These noninvasive techniques not only provide a superior depiction of the pelvic anatomy but also yield unique dynamic information.

The new 3D technology is on the front line in the diagnostic and therapeutic workup and is superior to 2D-US, due to the elaboration of images, achieving better accuracy in the diagnosis of complex diseases.

This course is organised for all physicians who are involved or interested in pelvic floor disorders: general surgeons, gastroenterologists, radiologists, urologists and gynaecologists. Theoretical session presents the main guidelines and indications for the use of the different US techniques in clinical practice, demonstrating the endosonographic appearance of normal anatomy and common pathologic conditions of the pelvic floor. Practical session is organised in order to provide the participants with hands-on experience in the basic use of US and is designed to closely discuss specific details of the techniques. Finally, the course includes a session of hands-on training on PC-3D view workstation to let each participant review, manipulate, analyse and discuss several clinical cases under experts' advice.

A number of highly regarded specialists in this area have been selected to provide their experiences on the different topics of the Course.

(Endovaginal, Endoanal, Endorectal, Transperineal US) and Images
Interpretation of Normal Pelvic Floor Anatomy - G. A. SANTORO
14.00-14.30 US Assessment and Clinical Relevance of Anal Sphincters Damage and Fecal Incontinence - G. A. SANTORO
14.30-15.00 US Assessment of Anterior Compartment Disorders (Urinary Incontinence, Anterior Vaginal Wall Prolapse, Images of Tapes and Meshes) - P. WIECZOREK
15.00-15.30 US Assessment of Posterior Compartment Disorders: Posterior Vaginal
Wall Prolapse, Obstructed Defecation - G. A. SANTORO
15.30-16.00 3D Transperineal US in the Assessment of Pelvic Organ Prolapse and Levator Ani Damage - A. YOUSSEF
16.00-16.30 Coffee Break

LIVE ULTRASOUND SESSION AND HANDS-ON LAB SESSION

- Chairs: L. BRUSCIANO, A. YOUSSEF
Examiners: E. CAVAZZONI, F. MUGGIA, G. A. SANTORO, C. TSANG, P. WIECZOREK
and Delegates
16.30 PELVIC FLOOR US DEMONSTRATIONS
· Fecal and Urinary Incontinence;
· Pelvic Organ Prolapse

THEORETICAL SESSION

- 18.30 - 19.00 Surgical treatment of Pelvic Organ Prolapse - M. CERVIGNI
19.00 - 19.30 Discussion and Adjourn

Thursday, March 28th 2024

08.30 - 9.00 US Assessment of Perianal Abscesses and Fistulas - C. TSANG
09.00 – 9.30 Anorectal Manometry - E. CAVAZZONI

LIVE ULTRASOUND SESSION AND HANDS-ON LAB SESSION

Chairs: C. MAGBOJOS, L. BRUSCIANO
Examiners: G. A. SANTORO, C. TSANG and Delegates
09.30 – 13.00 US DEMONSTRATIONS
Perianal Abscesses and Fistulas

Pelvic Floor Disorders

G.A. Santoro, Regional Hospital Ca Foncello, Treviso, Italy;
A.P. Wiczorek, University of Lublin, Poland; C.I.
Bartram, St. Marks Hospital, London (Eds.)

Imaging and Multidisciplinary Approach to Management Dramatic improvement in imaging techniques (3D ultrasonography, dynamic magnetic resonance) allows greater insight into the complex anatomy of the pelvic floor and its pathological modifications. Obstetrical events leading to fecal and urinary incontinence in women, the development of pelvic organ prolapse, and mechanism of voiding dysfunction and obstructed defecation can now be accurately assessed, which is fundamental for appropriate treatment decision making. This book is written for gynecologists, colorectal surgeons, urologists, radiologists, and gastroenterologists with a special interest in this field of medicine. It is also relevant to everyone who aspires to improve their understanding of the fundamental principles of pelvic floor disorders.
